

FREEMASONRY FOR STUDENTS

AT SWANSEA
UNIVERSITY

AD UNAM OMNES

Singleton Lodge No.8399

IT'S PRINCIPLED

Its values are based on integrity, kindness, honesty and fairness.

IT'S A GREAT WAY TO MAKE FRIENDS

Freemasonry provides a unique environment for people from all backgrounds to learn skills, make lasting friendships, achieve their potential and, above all,
have fun.

ITS OPENNESS

Freemasonry prides itself on its transparency.

Not only are Freemasons completely free to acknowledge their membership, they are encouraged to do so.

IT'S A GIVING ORGANISATION

Freemasons make a major contribution to society through their own charities, as well as through donations to UK charities and worldwide disaster relief funds.

IT BUILDS CHARACTER

Every Freemason embarks on his own journey of selfdiscovery when he enters the organisation.

IT PROMOTES GOOD CITIZENSHIP

Freemasonry is more relevant and important to society today than ever, as it encompasses and embraces all the fundamental principles of good citizenship.

There are over 200,000 Freemasons belonging to 8,000 Lodges throughout England and Wales, and districts overseas.

Worldwide, the figure rises to six million who have been stimulated to join Freemasonry.

They all have their own reasons for joining. For some it has been simple curiosity, for others it has been because their father or another family member has been in it and others have been approached by friends who are already members.

For University students and members, it may be about making new friends and acquaintances or being able to assist deserving causes. But for most, it is simply an enjoyable hobby.

EVERY FREEMASON HAS HIS OWN REASON FOR JOINING.
WHAT'S YOURS?
